How to book a room?

If you need space to study together, discuss group projects or collaborations,

The Pau Library provides 9 rooms, available from 8:30 am to 6 pm for currently enrolled UPPA students and non-UPPA members of the library.

These study rooms are designated for group work (up to 10 persons), not individual study and are equipped with large whiteboards. Markers and dusters can be borrowed at the Loan Desk by the entrance of library.

A maximum of 2 hours a day and 8 hours a week are allowed per person and bookings can be made up to 2 weeks in advance.

You need a University email address to book a study room. If that is not your case, please go to the AiDE Reference Desk and we will do it for you.
