Login Required to Access Scopus

You are outside your institution's network. To access Scopus consider the following options:

- Athens and Shibboleth (Institutional) users please login here
- If you have previously registered with Scopus or ScienceDirect and your account is validated for remote access, you can login with your username and password.
- If your account is not validated for remote access, you may need to contact your institution's Scopus administrator (e.g. librarian) to have remote access enabled for your account.
- Alternatively, you may be able to gain access through your library's website or institution's VPN. For more details on available options, you may need to contact your institution's Scopus administrator (e.g. librarian).
- Although institutional access is required to fully benefit from Scopus, just go to Author Preview and test us by finding millions of available author details.

The screenshot shows the Scopus website interface. At the top, there is a browser window with the URL www.scopus.com and a search bar containing the text "Rechercher". Below the browser window, the Scopus logo is displayed on the left, and navigation links for "Scopus", "SciVal", "Activate Personalization", "Logout", and "Help" are on the right. A dark teal navigation bar contains buttons for "Search", "Alerts", "Lists", and "My Scopus". Below this bar, a banner reads "Join the webinar on February 18 – Why Scopus content is relevant to you – register now." The main content area features a "Document search" section with tabs for "Document search", "Author search", "Affiliation search", and "Advanced search". The search input field contains the text "Eg., 'heart attack' AND stress" and a dropdown menu is set to "Article Title, Abstract, Keywords". Below the search field, there are options to "Add search field" and "Limit to:" with filters for "Date Range (inclusive)", "Document Type", and "Subject Areas". On the right side of the search area, there are several utility links: "Learn more about how to Improve Scopus", "Stay up-to-date on Scopus. Follow @Scopus on Twitter", "Watch tutorials and learn how to make Scopus work for you", "Get citation alerts pushed straight to your inbox", and "Get started with Scopus APIs". At the bottom of the page, there is a footer with links for "About Scopus", "What is Scopus", "Content coverage", "Scopus Blog", "Scopus API", "Language" (with options for Japanese and Simplified Chinese), "Customer Service", "Help and Contact", and "Live Chat". The Elsevier logo and copyright information are also present in the footer.
